

WHAT DOES A COURSE REP DO?

Seek out views and opinions of students in their department or course

Take course level issues to JCC/GJCC meetings

Attend other staff meetings they are invited to in the department

Go prepared to meetings by reading the papers and consult with students on issues

Provide feedback and outcomes of the meetings to the students you represent

Liaise with other course reps to form a picture of the views of the department student body