1: Statement of Purpose

Student Advice is a free, independent, and confidential information and advice service available to all matriculated Oxford University students.

A part of Oxford SU, Student Advice is representative of the target community and is committed to promoting equality, valuing diversity, and non-discrimination is a core value.

2: Objectives

The objective of this policy is to prevent, reduce and stop all forms of discrimination in line with the Equality Act 2010.

2:1 For staff: to ensure that all recruitment, training, promotion, development, assessment, benefits, terms and conditions of employment, redundancy, disciplinary proceedings and dismissal are determined on the basis of capability, experience, qualifications, skills and productivity.

2:2 For Service Users: to ensure that services and support offered by Student Advice are free from any unlawful discrimination.

3: Definitions

For Student Advice:

3:1 Equality

Means ensuring that everyone has equality of opportunity through a fair and consistent approach to the application of rules, policies and procedures in how we deliver our services and function internally.

In this context, our aims are to ensure that:

- Our service users receive an accessible, relevant and respectful service that meets their particular needs
- Our staff feel respected and able to give of their best

3:2 Diversity

Means recognizing and valuing the visible and invisible differences that exist between people, such as those based on gender/gender identity, culture, race, ethnic origin, physical and mental ability, sexual orientation, age, economic class, language, religion, nationality, education, and family/marital status.

3:3 Non-Discrimination

Means promoting positive attitudes towards equality and diversity to ensure those working at Student Advice Service and those receiving a service from Student Advice are treated with dignity and respect in line with legislation set down in the Equality Act 2010.

Student Advice recognizes the nine protected characteristics listed under The Act and is actively opposed to discrimination on the grounds of age; disability; gender re-assignment; race; religion or belief; sex; sexual orientation; marital status or civil partnership; pregnancy or maternity.

Student Advice will aim to combat all direct or associative discrimination on the grounds of any protected characteristic in employment practice and service delivery.

4: Policy

The purpose of this policy is to provide equality and fairness for all in employment and service delivery. We will not discriminate unlawfully or unfairly because of age, disability, gender reassignment, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, race, ethnic origin, nationality, national origin, religion or belief and sexual orientation.

We will not discriminate directly (discrimination due to having a protected characteristic or being perceived to have a protected characteristic.)

We will not discriminate associatively (discrimination by association with another person who possesses a protected characteristic or is perceived as having a protected characteristic.)

Our commitment:

- We will create an environment in which individual difference is recognized and valued, and which promotes dignity and respect
- Our recruitment processes for staff will be fair, transparent and open
- We will make every effort to ensure that training, development and career opportunities are available to all staff
- We will carry out regular organizational and independent yearly reviews of policies, practices and procedures to identify and tackle any unintentional discrimination we may find in the provision of our services

5: The Extent of this Policy

5:1 Student Advice seeks to apply this policy in recruitment, selection, training, appraisal, development and promotion of all employees.

5:2 Student Advice seeks to apply this policy in all aspects of service delivery.

6: Responsibility and Review

6:1 The implementation of this policy and supporting procedures will be the responsibility of all staff employed by the Organisation.

6:2 Operational oversight of this Policy will lie with the Manager of Student Advice.

6:3 Ultimate responsibility for the implementation of this Policy will lie with the Chief Executive of Oxford SU.

6:4 This Policy will be reviewed annually or when required through Operational need. Review will be the responsibility of the Chief Executive.

7: Breaches of this policy

7:1 Breaches of this policy will be regarded as misconduct and could lead to disciplinary proceedings, in line with our grievance policy.

7:2 Any member of the organization or service user concerned about a breach of this policy should follow guidance outlined in the Complaints Procedure.
