

Council Minutes: Friday, Week 5, MT08

Rich Hardiman (OUSU Financial Admin Manager) was given speaking rights in Council: (Speaking with regard to the JMB entry in this week's Oxford Student Newspaper) I've checked the files that were sent and they included the missing manifesto. There are 3 potential errors but I do not want to bore you with the details. This has led to an incomplete JMB being published.

Madeline Stanley (LMH): Noted that she has made a ruling that the JMB must be in the Oxford Student, and that in order to guarantee free and fair elections, the elections would be delayed by exactly a week. There will be a meeting for all candidates.

Jonny Medland (Queen's): Why can we not run the elections at the weekend starting on Friday?

Madeline Stanley (LMH): Voters should be allowed the same amount of time to get hold of a copy of the JMB and to read it.

Stefan Baskerville (University): Will you email all our tutors to explain why our work will not be in on time?

Madeline Stanley (LMH): Only if you email mine.

Special Council

The Chair ruled move to vote. No opposition.

The Chair explained that he would read out a name from the list. If the person doesn't answer after 2 calls they may forfeit their vote. If the person who is voting is different you must come to me and speak to me about it, and your constitution must allow it.

People came down to speak to the Chair.
